- it discloses no reasonable or relevant case;
- it would be an abuse of the hearing process to allow the submission (or the part) to be taken further;

Submission

The specific parts of the application that my submission relates to are: Stage 12 There are 18 medium density lots within Stage 12, being 492m2 to 729m2 with an average density of 520m2

My submission is: In opposition of the application or specific parts of it

Please detail the reasons for making your submission: Kinloch structure plan states that sections range from 800 to 1200 m2 in the main. I don't see the need or demand to reduce land sizes under 800m2 when there is no shortage of land for sections . The smaller land sizes sometimes see caravans, campervans, boats and second cars parking on the berms and up laneways, cluttering the visual landscape and as Kinloch is a place where people generally have a few recreational vehicles or meet family and friends here. they require extra parking. Generally, higher-density development occurs around amenities like shops & public transport where people can bike/walk to work. The patchwork quality of some higher-density developments that have a two-storey house affecting the sunlight & privacy of its single-level neighbour is not visually appealing. either. The smaller laneways do not have any room for street landscaping, which is historically part of the character of Kinloch streets..

Alternatively, please upload document detailing the reasons for making your submission:
